Is War's End Again At Hand?

*Kissinger Comes Home
For Sunday Talks With Nixon*

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Henry A. Kissinger flies back to the United States today for consultations with President Nixon after concluding his latest talks with Le Duc Tho. The planned session with Nixon apparently marks a climax in the search for peace in Vietnam.

Presidential press secretary Ronald Ziegler, who announced Kissinger's return to newsmen at the Florida White House, declined to categorize the status of the Paris talks but suggested their length should be noted.

He said Kissinger would fly to Homestead Air Force Base south of Miami and arrive late tonight at Key Biscayne, Fla. He added that Kissinger would meet with Nixon shortly after his arrival and the two would meet again Sunday.

Kissinger and Tho continued their talks for the sixth straight day this morning in an American-owned villa in suburban St. Nom la Breteche.

Some reports said Nixon's top foreign-policy adviser and the Hanoi Politburo member had made definite progress. But North Vietnam said Nixon's strategy to negotiate from a position of strength had been defeated.

Swedish Prime Minister Olof Palme, who met for 90 minutes Friday with North Vietnamese delegate Xuan Thuy, told newsmen today, "It is not at all certain that there will be an agreement." He declined to elaborate or to disclose details of his talk with Thuy.

"I am disappointed that there is no peace already," Palme said. "But the talks must go on. There is a great opportunity of achieving results since the two sides were so close in October."

Palme, one of the most severe critics of U.S. policy in Vietnam, is in Paris for a meeting of the Socialist International.

Tho and Kissinger on Friday completed 27½ hours of talks over five days, but both sides continued their news blackout.

ABC Television news reported from Paris that that "a final agreement ending the war may already have been reached." The report did not cite any evidence.

Nixon: 'A Toss-Up'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, the nation's No. 1 football fan, says it's a toss-up between the Washington Redskins and the Miami Dolphins for the National Football League championship in Sunday's Super bowl.

"The two teams are so evenly matched it'll be a game of the breaks," Nixon said Friday.

The President said he'll be watching the game on television from Key Biscayne, Fla., and added: "I'll pull for the Redskins; but, if Miami wins, I'll be generous." Nixon made the remarks in a brief chat with reporters.

Captured After Firebombing

Youth Sought In Detroit Police Slaying Charged With First Degree Murder

DETROIT (AP)—One of three men sought in the slaying of one Detroit policeman and the wounding of five others was arrested Friday following the firebombing of a crowded Planned Parenthood office that triggered a bullet-strewn half-hour chase.

Police said Hayward Brown,

18, of Detroit, was captured several blocks from the downtown office after exchanging shots with police.

Sgt. John Faulman of the Detroit police homicide division said the two others sought in the two separate police shooting incidents last month were also believed involved in the firebombing.

He said Percy Boyd, 23, and Mark Bethune, 22, both of Detroit, were thought to be hiding in the downtown area close to the firebombed office.

"They can't move," he said. "It's too hot out there. We've got too many people down there."

"They belong to some of these radical organizations apparently," Faulman added. "Apparently those are the people who were hiding them."

Brown, Boyd and Bethune have been the subject of what has been described as one of the most determined manhunts in Detroit police history.

Officers involved in the shootings were members of the controversial STRESS (Stop the Robberies, Enjoy Safe Streets) decoy unit.

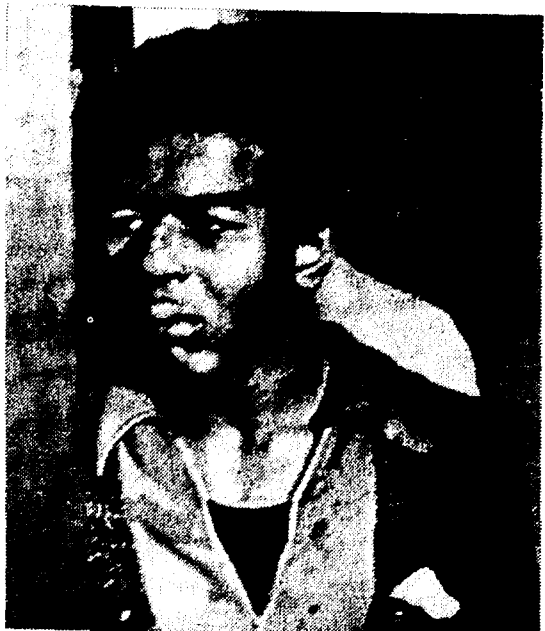

Two other persons were taken into custody for questioning Friday but were later released.

Brown gave a clenched fist salute to the courtroom audience as he entered Detroit Recorder's Court for arraignment Friday, but stood silent during the court session.

He was arraigned on a charge of first-degree murder in the Dec. 27 slaying of Patrolman Robert Bradford. A second officer was also wounded in the incident.

Brown was also charged with four counts of assault with intent to murder in the Dec. 4 wounding of four other policemen, plus two unrelated charges of carrying a concealed weapon.

Slaying Suspect, 18, Has Long Life Of Crime

DETROIT (AP)—Hayward Brown, target of an intensive manhunt, is again in the hands of police after being cornered near Wayne State University in the climax of a 30-minute gun battle with officers Friday.

It was an ironic end to his successful six-week evasion of a police dragnet. The last time the 18-year-old Brown was arrested was on a concealed weapon charge in September, again in the Wayne State area.

His most recent brushes with police—two alleged shootings resulting in the death of one officer and the wounding of five others—weren't the first for Brown.

He had been arrested 14 times as a juvenile and twice more in the past year, once for armed robbery in June and once for the concealed weapon charge. He was also wanted in connection with several other robberies.

But those alleged infractions were soon forgotten when three men opened fire on four undercover policemen early Dec. 4, wounding them all. Police blamed Brown and two companions—Mark C. Bethune, 22, and John Percy Boyd Jr., 23.

The three also were charged in the slaying of Patrolman Robert Bradford and the wounding of his partner Dec. 27. The officers had been staking out a house in which they believed two of the men were hiding.

While Bethune and Boyd were being sought at the time of the first shooting in connection with a murder Nov. 29, it was Brown who was best known to police.

Highland Park police say they were seeking Brown on several robbery charges, while sources in the Detroit Police Department describe Brown as a drug addict—a claim hotly disputed by his relatives.

TWINS HAVE SAME BAD BREATH

'Fancy Seeing You Here!'

HARTLEPOOL, England (AP) — Identical twins appeared in the same courthouse Friday and were fined identical amounts for identical offenses committed streets apart without each other's knowledge.

Les and Stan Waters, born 45 years ago within 30 minutes of each other, were arrested on the same night here.

Both were charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, but neither knew while he was being tested by a police breathalyzer that the other was undergoing an identical test at the same time at another police station a few streets away.

"I couldn't believe it when Les told me he had been breathalyzed the same night," said Stan, who met his brother in a bar a week after his arrest. "They say strange coincidences happen to twins, but this is ridiculous," complained Les.

The brothers pleaded guilty, were fined $818 and were banned from driving for one year.

Back The Governor And Relief Is Yours!

Announcing that citizens are "absolutely fed up with ever-rising taxes," Gov. William Milliken Thursday proposed a system of tax cuts for Michigan amounting to $370 million over the next two fiscal years.

That's telling it like it is — and like it should be. It's truth and logic.

Unfortunately, there's nothing free - spending politicians and bureaucrats hate worse than truth and logic. The day after Gov. Milliken, a Republican, made his tax cut proposal, House Speaker William A. Ryan, a Detroit Democrat, said he could not say whether the tax cut proposals are "realistic." He added: "Increased income is not necessarily real income and that the full employment picture (which the Governor mentioned as one of the reasons for his tax cut proposal) does not mean a satisfactory reduction of the level of unemployment."

That statement is gobbledegook. What does it mean? Coming from Ryan, it most probably means the start of an intentional campaign of obfuscation. Ryan's entire career in the Legislature has been to establish a reputation as the biggest spender of all the Legislature's big - spending Democrats. He never lets the taxpayer's suffering interfere with either his pet social welfare projects or pay hikes for legislators and state employees.

Milliken has been governor long enough not to talk about tax cuts lightly. He's the man who's going to have to present the Legislature a balanced budget. If he goes, he's dead politically. And the smiling boy governor from Traverse City hasn't shown any signs yet of committing political suicide.

Milliken sees it this way:

"Our citizens are absolutely fed up with ever - rising taxes. And, quite frankly, they don't think their tax dollar is being well spent. Many people have lost all faith in government—almost all have lost some faith in government."

He said his tax cut, coming on the heels of a "rapidly expanding economy, federal revenue sharing, enactment of the state lottery and a close control on expenditures," should be coupled with more efficient management to "help restore public trust in government."

The Governor is not only right about that; he also appears to have proposed

Coming Up Tuesday-- National Nothing Day

The National Nothing Foundation of Santa Cruz, Calif., has found a way to contradict Lucretius, the Roman epicurean who held that "Nothing can be created out of nothing." The foundation has created national Nothing Day out of Tuesday, Jan. 16. It comes two days after the beginning of Cuckoo Dancing Week (Jan. 14), in memory of Laurel & Hardy, and four days before the snurfing (snow surfing) contest at Duncan Woods in nearby Grand Haven, Mich. (Jan. 20). Nothing Day's purpose is "to provide Americans with one day when they can just sit — without celebrating, observing or honoring anything."

The foundation is wrong, however, if it supposes that nothing is unimportant. Nothing has been celebrated in philosophy, poetry and song for ages. Socrates boasted in Phaedrus: "All I know is that I know nothing." Cervantes, in Don Quixote, coined the memorable "Thou hast seen nothing yet." And W.S.

Gilbert, in Iolanthe, praised the well-rounded man who "did nothing in particular and did it very well."

National Nothing Day would be a fine time to celebrate all those unassuming things children do when they say they are doing nothing. Or celebrants could consider Benjamin Franklin King's lines in The Pessimist:

Nothing to do but work,
Nothing to eat but food,
Nothing to wear but clothes
To keep one from going nude.

Nothing obviously matters. The only question is: Is nothing sacred?

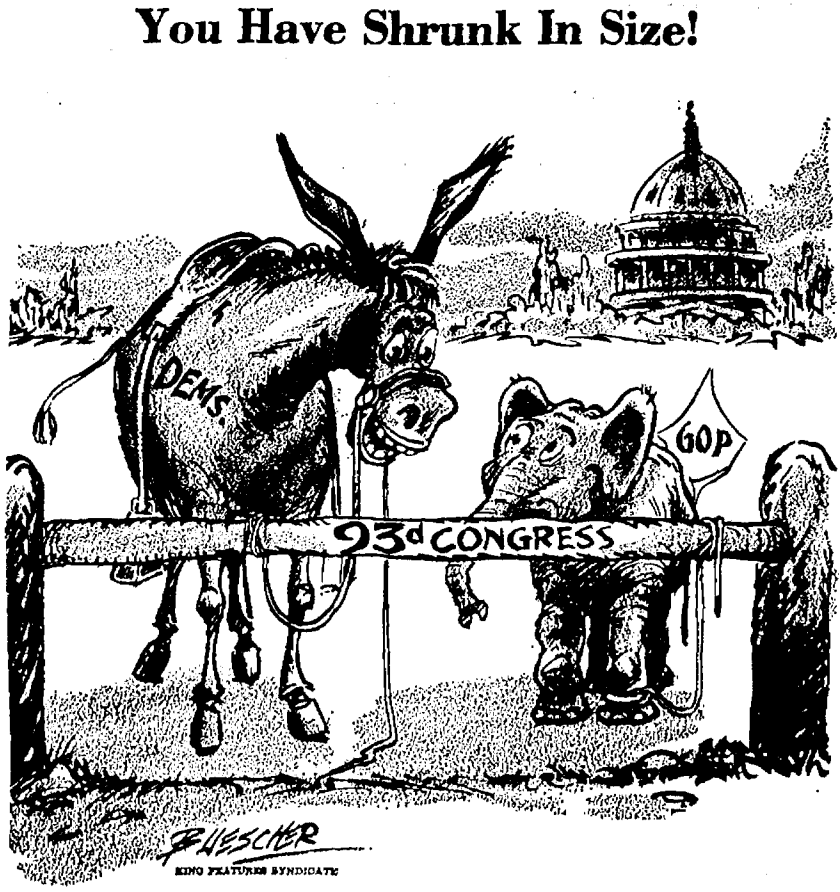

The Common Cold

A great deal depends on the outcome of seemingly never ending efforts to track down the cause of the common cold and discover the most effective means of combating it. This insidious foe of mankind has taken in the aggregate a heavy toll of human misery and economic loss.

Discussions of the nature of this sickness so widely prevalent in winter have produced many theories and controversies regarding its inception and treatment. The name cold became applied because most people associated its beginning with a chill.

Some persons have maintained that regardless of treatment a cold must run its course, and in this connection studies have developed no evidence that anything could be done to prevent the onset of a cold or to check its course, once contracted. It was found weather made no demonstrable difference, summer or winter, rainy or dry.

Any development that helped to deal more effectively with the common cold would be received with wide acclaim.

ONLY AS GOOD AS INSIDE ORDER

Editor,

On the front page of your newspaper, Jan. 7, 1973, appears an article, "School trustee blasts South Haven curriculum." I hope all the school boards in Berrien County read this because as I read this, I read it again because as I view the situation of education, this is what comes to my mind. People are interested in the building, not the inside school room, the individual grade.

I have three boys in school and as I view the school rooms, and see the results of it, when the child comes home, it is disgusting. We that have a home that is taught respect in it, and teach them to respect others and hear the children, don't want to go to school because others beat him up in rest rooms. I cringe and wonder what next. Now the building cannot take care of this. My boys had trouble on the bus, but I didn't take this to the bus. It's the same in our home. We can have a tumbled down shack or a mansion, its only as good as the order inside. But the point is the teacher can say he finds liberal class room works real well. But teacher this comes home what you teach in the classroom, and you're going to have to live with this kind of no discipline society. Maybe not you but your children or grandchildren. Authority better wake up before it's too late, and teacher, the example you put before our children is also vital. You're going to be accountable just like we as parents will reap what we sow. There are principles which mean more than the school building and I pray and this word pray is not just a word, it's a prayer for our schools, our children, that have to live in this education system, we are making them. But there is still hope if we will look at it again and put the three R's first instead of three B's Building, Brick, Business.

Thank you, read the article again, please.

REPLY TO MRS. HOWEY

Editor,

I'd like to reply to the letter from "Mrs. Lee Howey" who objects to the term "Ms." From the way she signed her letter I know only her husband's name; but who is SHE? I'm afraid Ms. Howey totally misses the point concerning the use of the title "Ms." It certainly doesn't show a woman's shame for her sex, since the term itself designates the female gender! What it doesn't tell you is whether or not a woman is married.

The term "Mrs." originated from the time when women were literally considered property of their husband. For one would rather be designated a person, with my own name, rather than as someone else's property. The idea behind the use of "Ms." is to eliminate making a woman's title dependant on a man (as in Mrs.) or the lack of one (as in Miss).

Men don't have a separate title to show whether or not they are married; they're always "Mr." In many cases a woman's marital status will cause discrimination against her, especially in applying for some jobs. If there is no way of telling whether or not she is married from her name, she is more likely to receive unbiased consideration.

Unless Ms. Howey advocates that men also change their titles when they marry, I can see no point in her argument. Yes, God created both male and female, but, as I understand it, each as individuals in their own right. Man created the outdated titles; and what man creates can be changed... and hopefully by both men and women!

Prospect Is Grim
For Any Progress

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A kind of dismal pall hangs over this capital as a new Congress gets to work and President Nixon prepares for his second term. January, symbolically, is the month of fresh hope. Yet the signs of it are not visible.

Even the renewed prospect of a Vietnam war settlement doesn't help much. It has been anticipated for so long that, when it finally comes, we will very likely find that it gives us very little lift at all.

Liberals who have argued for years that Vietnam stood in the way of virtually all home front progress will be placed, uncomfortably in the bright glare. Over-promisers without equal, they will be stripped of all excuse and asked to deliver. But deliver what?

The massive health care program the nation seems so badly to need? Sen. Edward Kennedy, a chief proponent of such a program, sees no hope for passage by Congress this year, though he has been actively trying to build pressure for it for at least two years.

The rebuilding of the cities? Here the gibbness of the liberals has really entrapped them. The phrase rolls easily off the tongues of the romantics. But the fact is they don't have the vaguest idea how to accomplish the task.

Even a superficial tour of half a dozen of our largest cities is quickly sobering. Housing is deteriorating. Streets are pocked. Ordinary services are performed erratically at best. The response to crime has been to convert many homes, apartments, stores and other living and working places into minor fortresses under constant guard. Rebuilding the cities, in body and spirit, looks like the task of a half a century rather than half a presidential term, as Sen. George McGovern appeared to be suggesting in his campaign.

But if the liberals' barrenness of fresh thought is near to being exposed in early 1973, what about Richard Nixon?

He may have gained crushing re-election by behaving in a "presidential manner" in the foreign field he loves so much. Yet, against a rival who struck U.S. voters as "presidential" in no way, the President's triumph may have been deceptively easy.

He could be reading the signals wrong if, as some of his friends hint, he imagines he can make his second term a duplicate of the first.

True, he won't be standing for election again, and won't have to take any personal heat if he, too, fails to deliver on the home front.

But we are not today in a time of foreign crisis such as marked Harry Truman's regime and is persuading many to overlook Truman's serious domestic failures. We have a more balanced mix of problems, and Americans unmistakably want some kind of real movement at home.

Old 'Guernica'
Myth Revived

The French rhetorician Vercors, among a great many others, has compared the U.S. bombing of Hanoi with the Nazi bombing of the town of Guernica during the Spanish civil war.

As everyone knows, the bombing of that Basque town in northern Spain has become a powerful symbol. If you could, in the manner of a pollster, stop an intellectual on a street corner and say, "Guernica!" and ask for a synonym you would get: "Outrage!" All the themes are there: Right against Left, technology against peasants, Stuka dive bombers against embattled farmers. And, enshrining it all, Picasso's great painting.

But, Guernica? As it happens, I have made myself something of an authority on the subject and reported my conclusions in the Jan. 5 issue of National Review. "Guernica," as generally understood, never happened. But it is a tremendously useful myth. A few facts:

1) Guernica was not an undefended peasant village, but one of the keys to the defense of Bilbao. In its outskirts were factories manufacturing munitions and mortars. It was also a rail depot and a divisional headquarters. Eight roads converged there. As it happens, these features were not in Guernica proper, and though they were bombed, the town itself was not.

2) Neither side in the Spanish Civil War had the kind of firepower that would allow it to waste bombs on non-military targets: the very essence of the Guernica claim. To produce the destruction claimed in Guernica, the Nationalist armies of the North would have had to use up a month's supply of bombs.

3) Recently published dispatches from Nationalist commanders in the field, the originals of which are available, tell us a number of things. First of all, that Guernica was hotly defended: "Our casualties were eight dead and sixty wounded. Eight Basque battalions and two battalions from Santander defended Guernica." Second: the Nationalist commanders in the field, entering the town itself, were appalled by the destruction, but noticed that the destruction was of a peculiar sort: "Guernica itself is free of bomb craters." It seems to me that these field reports, not made public at the time—a very important point—and intended only for the eyes of commanders in the field, have very evidential value.

4) As it happens, foreign correspondents on the scene noticed something fishy about the Guernica story. The correspondents of the Havas agency, the London Times and other newspapers noticed that the damage they themselves observed was not wrought by aerial bombing but by dynamite charges set at ground level. The Times man wrote: "A rain of bombs might, in loose journalistic parlance, 'destroy' a whole street in a town, but it would not destroy it in that way. At Guernica . . . there is hardly a mark in the streets. A rain of bombs would fall as often in the streets and gardens as on the houses." Only the houses in the town had been destroyed.

5) Was Guernica the first town to be so razed? Not at all. The comparable town of Eibar, also figuring in the Bilbao struggle, had been dynamited and burnt by the retreating Loyalist forces.

State's New Snowmobile Law Explained

Vehicles Banned On Road Shoulders But Permitted On Rights Of Way

BROTHER CHIEFS: Jerry Daniel, 26, left, and brother Bill Daniel, 29, are new fire and police chiefs of Weesav township. Jerry replaces Reggie Richardson as fire chief and Bill replaces Richard Narregan as police chief. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Daniel, New Troy. Both are employed by state highway department, Jerry in Niles and Bill in New Buffalo. (Esther Klupp photo)

Snowmobilers who operate their vehicles on shoulders of roads are in violation of state statute and will continue to be ticketed, according to state police at the Benton Harbor post.

The post cited an Associated Press story from Lansing that appeared in this newspaper Thursday as being incorrect. The AP account stated that Gov. Milliken signed a bill legalizing the use of snowmobiles on shoulders of roads throughout Michigan.

The state police post here stated that the new law does not permit operation of snowmobiles on shoulders of roadway. The law does permit snowmobiles on rights of way. This means the portion of highway property between the shoulder and the beginning of private property — not the shoulder or traveled portion of the road.

Previously, snowmobiles were permitted to operate on rights of way in northern Michigan, but not in the southern portion of the state. The change in the law was to make snowmobile regulations uniform throughout the state.

State police said it is illegal to operate snowmobiles in this area, either on roads, or shoulders. The use of snowmobiles on roads occurs only on county roads that are never plowed during the winter, and then with permission of the county road commission. There are some such roads in northern Michigan, but virtually all county roads in this area are plowed.

Court Delays Re-Sentencing

CASSOPOLIS — Re-sentencing of a former LaGrange township man was delayed in Cass county circuit court yesterday, pending hearing and decision by the court on a request for a new trial for the man.

Robert Wiggins, 22, was returned to Cass county from Jackson state prison after serving over 13 months of a seven to 10 year term imposed by Judge James Hoff on charge of feloniously assaulting a jailer with intent to escape. Wiggins pleaded guilty to the charge in Nov., 1971, after the Cass prosecutor agreed to drop other charges pending against Wiggins, including one of rape. Wiggins was in jail awaiting trial on the rape charge in Oct., 1971, when the escape attempt occurred.

Judge Hoff said re-sentencing request was granted under recent higher court rulings dealing with sentencing.

Wiggins' appeal alleged that his original sentence was excessive and that other charges against him for which convictions were not obtained were considered when the sentence was set.

Hearing on the motion for new trial was set for Feb. 2 before Judge Hoff.

Also scheduled Feb. 2 is motion on behalf of James Clark for new trial. Clark has been serving 30-to-40 years sentence ordered in 1963 for forcible rape.

Wooden Push Gives Tigers Lead In LMAC

BY JIM DeLAND

Staff Sports Writer

Benton Harbor's basketball team is back atop the Lake Michigan Athletic Conference standings... thanks to a timely push from Anthony Wooden Friday night.

The Tigers' 6-foot-5 senior co-captain broke the back of a threatening Muskegon rally with a burst of eight points in one minute late in the fourth quarter to lead Benton Harbor in a crucial 66-56 victory at the Colfax gym.

It was the fourth straight triumph for the surging Tigers and puts them in a three-way tie with Muskegon and Mona Shores for the LMAC lead.

"Wooden took 'em to the boards when it counted," Tiger coach Earl McKee said with a smile. "When you get tired that jump shot is hard to hit, so he took it inside."

Three times Wooden went to the boards and each time he was fouled. He responded by sinking all six free throws that put the Tigers out of danger at 66-54.

Until Wooden started his spree by scoring on a jump shot with 2:35 left in the game, the Tigers' only basket of the fourth quarter had come on an inadvertent tip-in by Muskegon star Eric Morris that was credited to Reggie Walker. In the meantime the Big Reds had cut a 21-point Benton Harbor lead to only six points at 58-52 and seemed to have the Tigers on the run.

"We got a little fatigued," McKee admitted. "Part of it was because the gym was so hot tonight, but part of it was mental from the excitement. They're the best team we've played so far. Every time we let down a little they came right after us."

Wooden finished the game with 22 points, 18 rebounds and eight assists while guards Jettie Rice and Gary Phillips added 17 and 13 points respectively. Rice got 15 of his points in the first nine minutes of the game when he hit 7 of 8 shots in a brilliant exhibition that included several layups on a fast break initiated by Wooden's rebounding.

Muskegon got 16 points from center Paul Peterman, 14 from Morris and 10 from guard Herbert Ray, but for most of the game was contained by Benton Harbor's hustling 1-2-2 zone defense.

The Big Reds also employed a zone until the second half when they switched to a scrambling man-to-man press that seemed instrumental in their comeback.

"Maybe we should have come out of the chute when the ball went up," Muskegon coach Mike Murphy mused. "That's second guessing, but the more I analyze this team the more I feel that I have to get them into some hell-for-leather type of thing to get their adrenalin flowing."

Statistically, shooting made the big difference in the game as Muskegon got off 20 more shots than Benton Harbor but wound up with one less basket, hitting only 30 per cent to the Tigers' 41 per cent.

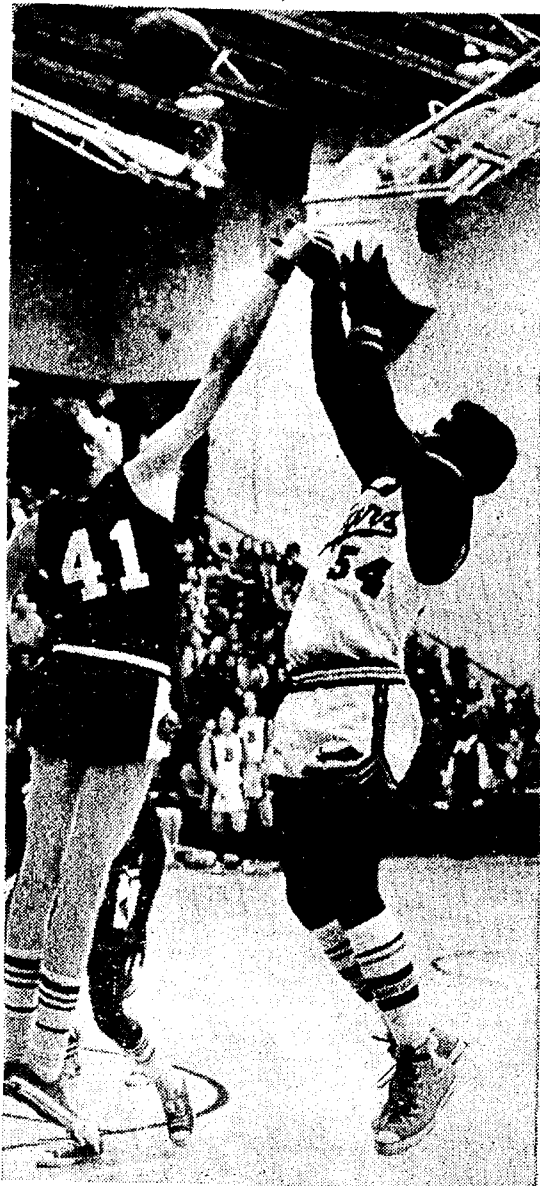

Most of the winning margin came at the free throw line, where Benton Harbor hit 14 of 19 with Wooden eight-for-eight and David Adkins four-for-four. Muskegon sank six of eight free throws, but drew only two shooting fouls while the Tigers picked up 10.

"We're starting to play basketball," McKee said. "We

Dowagiac Stops St. Joseph

Manley Star Of 66-59 Victory In Big Six Showdown

BY JOHN VANDEN HEED

Staff Sports Writer

DOWAGIAC — It was the little man who stood out among the super stars and giants in Dowagiac's Big Six showdown 66-59 triumph over St. Joseph here Friday night.

While 6-6 Dowagiac all-stater Edgar Wilson and 6-9 St. Joe standout Tom Scheffler were battling to a standoff well below their season scoring averages, 5-10 guard Mark Manley came through as the Chief hero.

Manley, who entered the game with a 14.4 scoring mark, took game scoring honors with 24 points while making 11 of 20 field goal attempts, including several 20-foot bombs. His key assists late in the game also provided easy baskets when highly-ranked Dowagiac was wrapping up its 10th straight victory without a loss.

"I don't know what I would have done to change the complexion of things tonight... stop Manley I guess... he was the difference," declared St. Joe Bear coach George Gaunder while trying to recover from the end of his team's nine-game winning streak.

St. Joe's proud defenders, especially Rick Cerecke and Dan Griswold, did about all that could be asked against Wilson in holding him to just six baskets in 18 shots. His final total of 13 points against the Bear man-to-man defense was less than half his season average.

St. Joe's Scheffler was also below his 21.1 average with 15 points. He got only eight shots as Dowagiac effectively kept the ball away from him with a 1-3-1 zone which had 6-7 John Singer playing Scheffler man-to-man in the middle.

Dowagiac also got 10 points apiece from Singer and Otis Hill, while Griswold had an excellent night for St. Joe with 20. Cerecke added 12 more points.

St. Joe led 14-12 after the first quarter with both Wilson and Scheffler being scoreless. Dowagiac then hit 9 of 17 shots in the second quarter for a 31-29 halftime lead. The Chiefs were also on top by two entering the last period. St. Joe never led in the second half but managed three ties, including a pair which followed a 10-point Chief lead.

"I thought that we came back two or three times very well," added Gaunder, "but they got inside too much... more than they should have."

Dowagiac finished with a 40 per cent field goal mark (29 of 72) while St. Joe finished at 37 per cent (23 of 62). Excellent free throw shooting saw the Bears mesh 13 of 15 and the Chiefs 8 of 11.

Respective team charts had St. Joe with a 37 to 32 rebounding advantage. Scheffler had 12 and Griswold 8 for the Bears. Wilson and Hill pulled off nine apiece for the Chiefs and Singer was credited with eight.

"They were better than we were tonight but they still have got to come to our ball park next time," concluded Gaunder on the loss which left the Bears at 2-2 in the Big Six and 9-2 overall. Dowagiac is 4-0 in the league and 10-0 on the season.

"I just thought we played excellent defense," added Dowagiac coach Clair Wilhelm on the outcome. "If anything, the press and pressure got to them at the end. But George has a great ball club... there's no doubt about that. It was just a great, great basketball game."

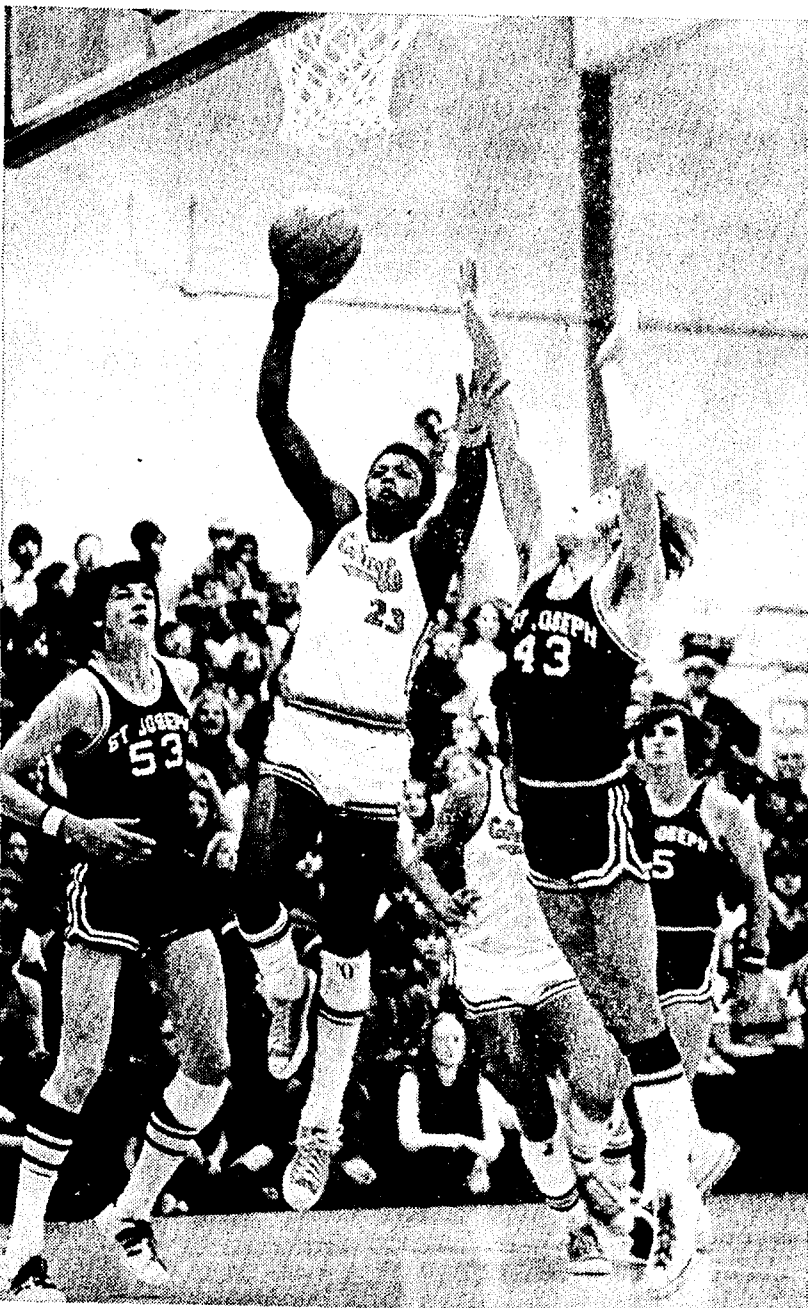

There were two scoring slumps that St. Joe overcame on the scoreboard but undoubtedly meant defeat in the overall picture.

St. Joe went from a 25-23 lead in the second quarter to a six-point deficit while going scoreless for more than two minutes. When in the third quarter with the score tied at 31-31, the Bears slumped through a scoreless spell of more than five minutes while missing 10 consecutive field goal attempts. Dowagiac went up by 10 for its biggest lead of the night, but once again the Bears battled back for deadlocks of 45-45 and 47-47 early in the fourth period.

Shamrocks Escape Cellar By Beating Bucks

BUCHANAN — A career high scoring performance by George Cairr and some fancy free throw shooting by Doug Lansdale led Berrien Springs to an 80-79 victory over Buchanan in a battle to escape the Blossomland conference cellar here Friday night.

Cairr scored 29 points and Lansdale dropped in 10 of 12 free throws to lead coach Connie Stover's Shamrocks to victory in a wild scoring duel that went right down to the final buzzer.

Buchanan was down by three points with 14 seconds to go but guard Steve Glosinger cut the deficit to one point on the payoff end of a fast break.

The Bucks then fouled Berrien's Doug Bennett at midcourt with seven seconds remaining and the strategy paid off when he missed the first of a one-and-one situation at the free throw line.

Buchanan got the rebound, but was unable to control the ball and failed to get a shot off. Lansdale finished the game with 18 points, as did substitute Curtis Wooden, giving the Shamrocks 65 points from their three big guns.

Buchanan got 26 points from Glosinger, 20 from Quinn

DeWitt and 16 from sophomore Mike McGuirt, but was crippled by foul problems that eventually cost the services of three starters.

Playmaker guard Joe Berry fouled out with almost three minutes left in the game and was followed shortly by center Bill Carson and McGuirt.

"That really hurt us," Buchanan coach Don Renhack said of the foul situation, which also gave Berrien its winning margin at the free throw line, where the Shamrocks sank 16 of 31 to the Bucks' 11 of 21.

Buchanan had a 56-47 edge on the boards with Carson grabbing 20 rebounds and hit 34 of 73 shots for a 46 per cent average while Berrien hit 32 of 80 for 40 per cent.

Buchanan had led by as much as seven points in the first quarter and six points in the third period, but each time the scrappy Shamrocks battled back to regain the lead.

The victory boosts Berrien into a tie for fourth place in the Blossomland standings at 2-3 and gives the Shamrocks a 3-4 season record. Buchanan is now tied for last place at 1-3 and is 1-7 for the season.

Berrien Springs also won the junior varsity game 67-58 with Bill Decker scoring 20 points, Mike McCray 18, Mike Kettelhut 14 and Jerry Tollas 10. Ken Garrett was high for Buchanan with 18 points.

Undeclared Jackson Rejects LMC's Bid

Indians Drop 78-73 Decision

JACKSON — Lake Michigan College's bid for first place in the western division of the Michigan junior college league was turned aside by unbeaten Jackson 78-73 here Friday night.

Jackson got 21 points from Keith Williams, 16 from Cecil VanDyke, 15 from Marvin Friend and 11 from Mike Meyer while hiking its records to 6-0 in the league and 15-0 on the season.

"I think they had a good ball club but they are beatable," commented LMC coach Ken Maxey. "I think we played an excellent game. We made a few mistakes at the wrong time and they took advantage of them."

LMC slipped to 5-2 in the league and 8-3 overall while getting 22 points from Dennis Hampton, 18 from James Boyd and 17 from Gilbert Jordan.

"I just thought it was a well played game on both ends," continued Maxey. "Toward the end we made one or two turnovers that might have turned the game around a little bit, though I really can't say those are the things that gave us the loss. It was a well played game on both parts."

It was close through out the first half with LMC's six-point lead being the biggest advantage. Halftime brought a 35-

35 deadlock, and LMC again got ahead by six early in the second half before Jackson went to work and emerged with the triumph.

LMC will get another shot at Jackson on its home court at the end of the regular season, but the Indians must first worry about tonight's 8 p.m. home game against Lorain County College of Ohio.

Covert Continues Hot Point Streak

COVERT — Covert continued its hot scoring streak here Friday night as the Bulldogs scorched Gobles 85-63 in a non-conference basketball game.

The victory was the third in a row for Covert and in all three the Bulldogs have scored at least 85 points.

It was also the third game in a row in which Ricky Wilburn has cracked the 20-point mark. He had 21 against the Tigers for a total of 68 in his last three games.

Wilburn also kept up his three-game free throw streak. He hit his only attempt Friday night to make it 12 without a miss.

Covert put all five starters in double figures, as it jumped off to a 26-12 first quarter lead and coasted the rest of the way.

Larry Lauderdale had 18 points for the Bulldogs, with Carl Moody getting 16 and Sam Allen and James Carter 10 each.

Bill Thompson and Randy Haaksma had 10 each for Gobles, which suffered its eighth straight loss and is now 1-9 for the season.

Covert won the jayvee game 82-56 with Matthew Lewis netting 32. It also romped to a 105-32 win in the freshman contest.

But, the sun's going to shine tomorrow, too.

That's why it's important you do something today to build a little nest egg for the future. And there's no easier way to do that than by joining the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. You sign up once and any amount you specify will be set aside from each paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

The Payroll Savings Plan. The perfect way to help your good life stay that way.

Now E Bonds pay 5 1/4% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen, or destroyed. When needed they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Join the Payroll Savings Plan.

You are advised that if the record owners of at least 20 percent of the land area in the special assessment district to be assessed for costs of the said improvements, as such land area is described above, with the exception of those properties on existing water lines, file written objections to the improvements with the Township Board at or prior to the hearing set forth below, then the improvements may not be made without petitions therefore which meet the requirement of Act 188, Public Acts of Michigan, 1954, as amended.

Plans and estimates have been prepared and are on file with the Township Clerk for public examination.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Township Board will meet on January 23, 1973 at 7:00 o'clock p.m., at the Township Hall, 5768 St. Joseph Avenue, in the Township of Lincoln, for the purpose of hearing any objections to the improvements and to the special assessment district therefore.

LEGAL NOTICES

MICHIGAN GAS UTILITIES COMPANY
NOTICE OF HEARING

Michigan Gas Utilities Company for several years has had in effect a tariff rule providing for a "purchased gas adjustment clause." This clause, as provided for by Michigan law, allowed the gas company to pass on increased costs of gas from pipeline suppliers to the gas company's customers receiving "other than domestic service." Recently, Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1972 was enacted repealing this limitation so that an increase in cost of pipeline gas to Michigan Gas Utilities Company can now be passed to all the Company's customers including those receiving domestic service, i.e., residential customers.

Consequently, Michigan Gas Utilities has filed an application with the Michigan Public Service Commission seeking an amendment of its purchase gas adjustment clause so that it will apply to all of the Company's customers. The Company has stated that the cost of gas is its largest single operating expense and that in order to obtain its gas supply, it must pay the pipeline rates approved by the Federal Power Commission. The Company further states that it has no way of offsetting the many increases in pipeline cost of gas it has been experiencing without the proposed amended purchased gas adjustment clause or expensive rate proceedings. The Company expects an impending increase in its cost of gas from its pipeline suppliers on February 1, 1973, and has asked that its amended purchased gas adjustment clause be approved by January 31, 1973.

A hearing on the Company's application is scheduled for Thursday, January 25, 1973, 9:30 a.m., in the Michigan Public Service Commission Hearing Room, Fifth Floor, Law Building, Lansing, Michigan. Copies of the Company's application and its prepared testimony may be acquired by contacting the Michigan Public Service Commission or any district office of Michigan Gas Utilities Company.
